

WHERE TO CAMP IN NELSON

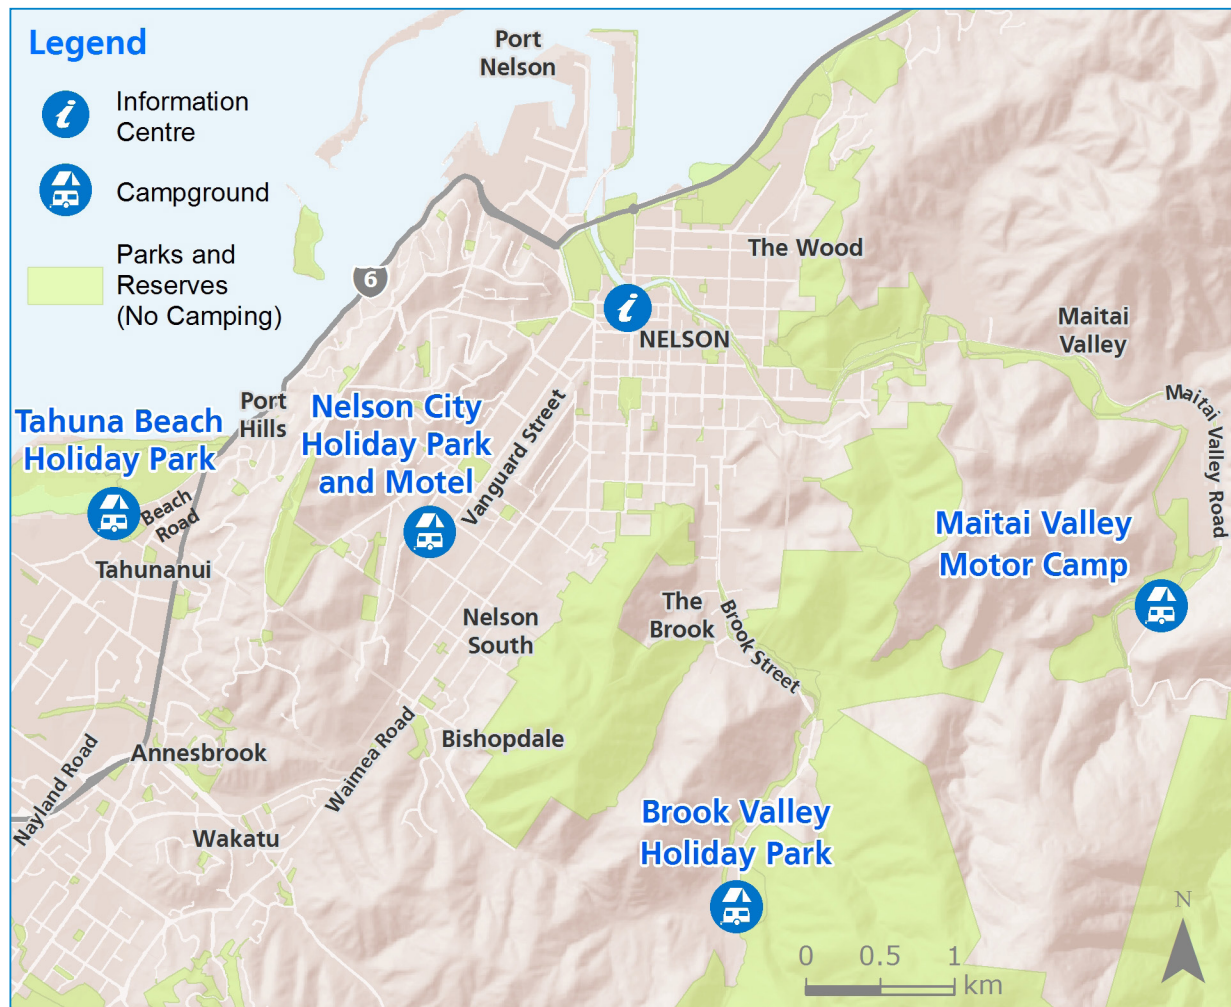

Non-self-contained vehicles only

Nelson City Council hopes you enjoy your camping trip in the top of the South Island. Here's some useful information to help you enjoy your stay.

Under the Nelson City Freedom Camping Bylaw camping in non-self-contained vehicles or tents is not permitted on any Council administered land within the Nelson region apart from within an official campground or with a private accommodation provider.

Please be aware that Nelson City Council actively enforces the rules around Freedom Camping within the Nelson area. If you breach the rules you can receive a $200 fine.

If you are travelling in a non-self-contained vehicle (no self - containment warrant), here are some of the places you can stay:

Camp	Distance from town	Check in closes at	Features
Tahuna Beach Holiday Park 70 Beach Road	5.3km	9pm	Sites for campers, caravaners, backpackers, whether camping in motor homes, caravans, tents or budget cabins.
Maitai Valley Motor Camp 472 Maitai Valley Road	6.3km	9pm	Nestled among 10 acres of native bush and trees. Camp sites, cabins and caravan hire.
Nelson City Holiday Park and Motel 230 Vanguard Street	2.2km	8pm	Tent sites may be available on request, three standard cabins, TV Room.
Brook Valley Holiday Park 600 Brook Street	5.9km	Sites usually available at any time - pay at office in the morning	Good sheltered sites on the doorstep of a nature sanctuary.

For more details about the Nelson City Freedom Camping Bylaw visit nelson.govt.nz/bylaws.

See the Campermate or Rankers websites or apps for other options.